

Ian Browne

Call: 2021

Specialist in:

- Housing & Community Care
- Civil Law

Experience

Ian has recently returned to the Bar alongside his work as a Lecturer (Teaching) at UCL Faculty of Laws.

Ian is currently developing a broad social welfare practice, drawing on his expertise in equality, human rights and public law.

In addition to teaching law and practising as a barrister, Ian has worked at a number of charities and NGOs, and has experience of campaigning, policy development and managing high-profile strategic litigation on human rights, discrimination and environmental issues.

