AB v CD (Child Arrangements Orders: Children over 16) [2025] EWFC 12

Zubair Mughal successfully represented the mother in a case where the court was satisfied that the matter was exceptional enough to make orders until two of the children reached 18 years old. The court also made an order under s91(14) of the CA 1989 for a period of five years.

The court found:

“The father has findings against him of physical and emotional abuse against both children causing trauma and in one case PTSD. The children need protection from him.”
